Locally owned and operated, the Cabin in the Woods Bed and Breakfast boasts three incredible cabins open year-round. Be sure to bring your appetite—each cabin comes with daily continental breakfasts to help fuel you for the day.

Their newest accommodation is the “Silo B&B,” a beautifully decorated and furnished grain bin that provides a unique and unforgettable experience.

Inside you will find a bright interior with wood accents, a winding staircase up to a queen bed and a half bath in the loft. The main floor is elegantly laid out. With a self-catering kitchen, an antique island with stools, a three-piece bathroom and a sitting area with furniture that transforms into two single beds, this luxurious silo can comfortably sleep up to five guests.

Located on the same property are two other cabins. “The Cabin” sleeps six, and “The Tiny House” sleeps four. Both cabins include three-piece bathrooms and full kitchens as well as luxurious amenities such as bathrobes, towels and bedding. They each have a wood stove and furnace as well as outdoor firepits to enjoy under the night sky.
