

STAY, EXPLORE & EAT IN THE Mackenzie Region

Discover the wild beauty of the Mackenzie Region, where adventure meets comfort and great cuisine. Thrilling outdoor experiences, welcoming stays and mouthwatering meals provide a getaway like no other in the Northern Frontier.

STAY

The Aurora House

in La Crete offers two comfortable Airbnb houses ideal for visitors exploring the area. Guests can enjoy convenient parking options, a clean environment and accessibility features—making it a great choice for families, seniors and those with mobility issues.

“Both our properties are on one level, with no stairs, making them accessible for everyone,” said Owner Tina Derksen.

Both properties have fully equipped kitchens featuring modern appliances such as coffee machines, dishwashers and BBQ grills, which allow guests to prepare meals easily. Personal touches are also included such as coffee, tea, and local décor.

“We decorated these properties with local photographs and prints to give the spaces a more at home feel,” said Derksen.

Each house also provides visitors with the option of air conditioning or cozy heating, ensuring a comfortable stay no matter the season.

Locally owned and operated, the Aurora House is conveniently located near grocery stores and nearby attractions. Guests can enjoy the convenience of having essentials and activities just a short distance away, making it an ideal base for exploring the area.

“There are a lot of local recreation opportunities nearby to enjoy, such as fishing, hiking, seeing the river and the ferry,” said Derksen.

EXPLORE

For those seeking a thrilling outdoor adventure during their stay, try a Side-by-Side, ATV or snowmobile rental from Rocky Ridge Rentals. It's located just an hour's drive north of La Crete.

Owned by Ernie Dyck, this exceptional rental facility offers year-round adrenaline packed adventures that lets visitors see the Mackenzie Region up close and personal.

“We always recommend our renters explore local trails, especially the Machesis trails because they are some of the nicest ones in the area,” said Dyck.

With affordable rates, convenient pick-up and drop-offs and flexible rental options, Rocky Ridge Rentals is the perfect way to experience the freedom of off-roading and take in the stunning landscapes of the Mackenzie Region.

Renters can drive through lush forests, open meadows, rugged terrain and catch glimpses of local wildlife such as moose, deer and elk. Each trail offers a chance for an unforgettable encounter with nature, making every ride a memorable experience.

EAT

Ready to replenish and refuel after a full day of adventuring? Look no further than the Canton Chinese and Western Restaurant in High Level.

Offering a wide variety of delicious meals, customers can choose from authentic Chinese fare, East Indian specials, mouth watering burgers and sandwiches, fried chicken and delectable appetizers—such as egg rolls, deep-fried shrimp, dry ribs and more.

With friendly staff, great customer service and a delivery option, this local favourite is a must-try when visiting the Mackenzie Region.
